AN ORDINANCE

Councilmember Jim Maddox

An Ordinance to name the new International Terminal at Hartsfield International Airport, the Maynard Holbrook Jackson, Jr. International Terminal in honor of Atlanta's former Mayor

WHEREAS, Maynard Holbrook Jackson was elected the first black Mayor of a major southern City in 1973; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Jackson served two terms as Atlanta's Mayor from 1974 through 1981, and a third term, from 1989-1993; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Jackson was instrumental in the expansion of the city's airport into a world class facility, that was built on time and under budget; and

WHEREAS, Hartsfield Atlanta International Airport is now the busiest airport in the world; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Maynard Holbrook Jackson, Jr. died June 23, 2003; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the City and its citizens honor his great legacy in some way; and

WHEREAS, the City has begun site preparation for a new international terminal; and

WHEREAS, this will be a state of the art facility that will be a ten-gate extension of the present international terminal building that will handle both domestic and international flights; and

WHEREAS, this facility is slated to be completed in late 2006 or early 2007; and

WHEREAS, the naming of the new International Terminal would honor his memory in an appropriate manner.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ATLANTA, GEORGIA as follows:

Section 1: That the new International Terminal at Hartsfield Atlanta International be named the Maynard Holbrook Jackson, Jr. International Terminal.

Section 2: That all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed
